Day 5

The team rounded up the mission work at Keningau, Kampong Baitah and the village ministry. We left for Kota Kinabalu on Saturday morning for our first recreation supposedly to be widewater rafting and shopping. The day ended up with our usual debriefing and our first late night fellowship.

Day 6

Our 1st Sunday Service at RBC KK was carried out as planned. Praise & Worship led by Sis Lay Sim, Sis Pauline's testimony and message by Snr Pastor David on "Hope". In the afternoon, we visited Bro Mackey Loh's 72 years old mother, whom used to be a Bomoh (practitioner of witchcraft), now converted to Christian. Snr Pastor David shared on John 14 "Let your heart not be troubled". The team sang one hokkien song and one Chinese song. Some sisters prayed over and hugged the ladies in the home and they were touched by the love of God and cried.

Former Bomoh converted to the Christian Faith proclaiming "God Is Good To Me!"

Sis Lay Sim & Sis Sandy led the Praise & Worship at Rhema Blessed Church, Kota Kinabalu

Church of Sengkang Has Landed in Sabah with "God's LOVE Never Fails" Mission to Rhema Blessed Church

Background

The Sabah Mission Trip Oct 12 to 18 consists of 13 members, whose theme is "God's Love Never Fails" 1 Corinthians 13:7-8. The seed was planted with our Snr Pastor David Kerk's visit to Sabah in June 2010 with his mentor Rev Canon Dr James Wong for Glory Christian Church building extension dedication service. It was here that invitation by Pastor Jeffrey Kumin of Rhema Blessed Church (RBC), Sabah Mission Trip seed was germinated. God certainly has very interesting ways of orchestrating.

Day 1

The team arrived safely at Kota Kinabalu International Airport and was received by Pastor Jeffrey from RBC. The team stayed in a Korean Mission House in Donggongon, Penampang. Our first night Revival Service at Rhema Blessed Church, Kota Kinabalu was carried out as planned. Praise & Worship led by Sis Lay Sim, Bro David Wong's testimony and message by Snr Pastor David on "We Need A Real Visitation of God" were excellent, many were touched & slain by the Lord and we achieved our objective.

Day 2

The planned Day Home Visit at Keningau was cancelled, reason given as the people were working. The evening Revival Meeting at Calvary Charismatic Church at Keningau, Kg Tuhan Baru was amazing. Praise & Worship led by Sis Lay Sim, Bro James Teo's testimony and message by Snr Pastor David on "Ministry of Habakkuk - Speaking on behalf of the Children of God". God's presence was so strong that evening, that many bowed down, slain and responded to the altar call. Even the founder Elder Steven, led his leadership team for a re-dedication of their service to the Lord, a revival of their commitment on their knees.

the core leadership responded to "Revive Me, O Lord!" at Calvary Charismatic Church, Tuhan Baru,

Day 3

The planned Day House Evangelism at Keningau was cancelled. The evening Kg Baitah Evangelistic Meeting was last minute changed to El Shaddai Baptist Church Family Meeting at the home of Pastor Jani. Praise & Worship led by Sis Lay Sim, Bro James Choo's testimony and message by Snr Pastor David on "The Lord is our Help in times of Trouble, He is our peace".

Our FIRST evangelistic meeting was changed to a Family Home meeting at El-Shaddai Baptist Church

Day 4

We have our 1st Home Visit at Kg Baitah. Elder Lim and wife Rosemary, caretaker of RBC Kg Baitah; invited us for breakfast and lunch at their home. We visited their neighbourhood: Florence and siblings whose parents were out working, prayed over a Christian lady whose husband is a Muslim, when prayed over her, she was moved to tears; and the salvation of Sis Lydia and a Indonesian couple Joseph and wife Helena. We also visited RBC Kg Baitah Church building and were very sad to see God's house without windows and doors for 4 years (Year 2006 to 2010). When Sis Rosemary led us to praise, worship & pray to our Lord, several team members were moved to tears.

Praying for the Salvation of her husband (picture of sis lay sim praying for that sister) at Home Visit to Baitah Village

In the evening, Kg Baitah Evangelistic Meeting was last minute changed to RBC, Keningau Church Meeting.
